What:

Food and drinks stalls! Stokey burgers and Pop-up potatoes!

When:

4:30-7:30pm

Where:

Outside the bluebird café.

What:

Community stalls and displays including:

Scoop magazine! Come and visit the creator and editor of this inspirational new magazine for young people.

“Designed to inspire and nurture a love of reading and stories. We have brought together a host of incredible writers and illustrators who create original fiction and non-fiction, we promise never to talk down to our readers”

Diversity work from our student ambassadors. We have a core group of outstanding Diversity ambassadors who seek to ensure that we are an inclusive, caring community. Come and speak to them about the amazing work they have been doing this year so far.

Work from our Student Take over day! Our students took over the school for a whole day! Come and see what they got up to!

Book stall- selling second hand books to raise money for an exciting new project that will provide bespoke, curated libraries for refugee community centres and support groups around the UK. Currently, books at these centres tend to be unwanted novels and non-fiction that bear no relevance to the experiences or literacy requirements of this vulnerable group of people. Due to their precarious immigration status, they cannot register for library services and often live very isolated lives, in which the right book or CD could make the world of difference.

‘Output Arts’. Intergenerational stories installation with work from our students and local residents. This amazing art installation tells the stories of local residents as interviewed by some of our Year 9 students.
