Job description

Purpose of the post:

- According to the DfES, 'cover supervision involves the supervision of pupils undertaking pre-prepared exercises'. No active teaching should take place.

- This supervision is required when the teacher normally responsible for teaching a class is absent from the classroom during the time they have been timetabled to teach. Cover supervision should only be used to cover short-term absences.

Main duties and responsibilities:

- Supervising work that has been set in accordance with school policy.
 - Managing the behaviour of the pupils whilst they are undertaking this work to ensure a constructive environment.
 - Undertake supervisory duties such as detentions, invigilation.
 - Responding to any questions from pupils about process and procedures.
 - Dealing with any immediate problems or emergencies according to the school's policies and procedures.
 - Collecting any completed work after the lesson and returning it to the appropriate teacher.
 - To supervise work that has been set in accordance with school policy.
 - To manage the behaviour of the pupils whilst they are undertaking this work to ensure a constructive environment.
 - To respond to any questions from pupils about process and procedures.
 - To deal with any immediate problems, minor incidents or emergencies according to the School's policies and procedures
 - Act as an adult supervisor on school educational visits and trips.
 - To collect any completed work after the lesson and return it to the appropriate teacher.
 - To report back as appropriate using the school's agreed referral procedures on the behaviour of pupils during the class, and any issues arising.
 - To undertake additional or other duties as may be appropriate to achieve the objectives of the post and as directed and deemed appropriate by the Line Manager.

General requirements:

- The post holder must always carry out his/her responsibilities with due regard to The Learning Trust's policy, organisation and arrangements for Health and Safety at Work.
 - It is your responsibility to carry out your duties in line with The Learning Trust's policy on Equality and Diversity and be sensitive and caring to the needs of others, promoting a positive approach to a harmonious working environment.
 - You must promote and safeguard the welfare of children, young and vulnerable people that you are responsible for or come into contact with.
