

Politics - Transition Task 5 - Political Institutions and Devolution

Devolution is about spreading power out from the centre (Westminster) to the different nations that make up the UK.

Can you identify the buildings below and who sits there?

One of the buildings is not in the UK but a European institution – which is it? who sits there?

Extension task:

During Covid19 there have been different policy directions taken by the different nations within the UK. Can you find out what those differences were and do you think this makes our political system weaker or stronger? Explain your answer.
