

Half term	Unit Description	Skills & content covered
11.1	Jobs and aspirations	Free time activities: TV programmes and films. Talking about hobbies and pocket money Describing sports and sporting events and talking about extreme sports
11.2	Jobs and aspirations	Talking about your home. Talking about different type of houses Talking about your neighbourhood. Talking about how you would change your city Shopping for clothing Giving presents and making complaints
11.3	International and global dimension	Talking about the body and illnesses Buying food. Talking about how to stay in good shape Reading problem pages and giving advice. Talking about issues facing young people
11.4	International and global dimension	Start official past papers practice. Listening and reading (Edexcel pack, so students can revise further on their own) Final chance to improve Writing or Speaking results before Moderation Day. Important Note of warning: it is not wise to wait until this time to improve writing or speaking as you will not have enough time to do all the essential reading and listening practice (these exams take place the first and second week of May)
11.5	Past papers	Moderation day  More official past papers + reading/listening practice
11.6	Past papers	