

Half term	Unit Title	Description
11.1	Elizabethan England, c1568-1603	British Depth Study – Elizabeth’s Court and Parliament. Students will learn how to evaluate sources, structure a historical narrative, and use knowledge of the period to understand a particular historical site. The unit begins with Elizabeth’s early life, propaganda and key figures in her court.
11.2	Elizabethan England, c1568-1603	Life in Elizabethan Times. Focus on Elizabethan Golden Age, including topics covering London theatres and attitudes and responses to poverty.
11.3	Elizabethan England, c1568-1603	Troubles at home and abroad. Focus on various problems faced by Elizabeth, including the Spanish Armada and religious plots against Elizabeth.
11.4	Revision	Students to revise course material, structured exam question practise. A visit from outside agency AQA instructor for a day’s conference for all GCSE History students (COVID permitting)
11.5	Revision	Students to revise course material, structured exam question practise.
11.6	Revision	Students to revise course material, structured exam question practise.